FEATURED AUTHORS

Lisa Gigliotti is an attorney who has lived for more than twenty-five years with severe rheumatoid arthritis and serious myasthenia gravis. Through those years, nine major surgeries and use of a wheelchair, Lisa has maintained a fulfilling and positive life. Lisa has achieved successful careers as an administrative law judge, a policy advisor for the Michigan state senate and governor, an advocate for people with disabilities and for improving end-of-life care, and is dedicated to helping others lead more fulfilling lives. In pursuit of the latter, Lisa spends her free time giving enthusiastic, inspiring talks to groups large and small, describing her Italian-American upbringing and how

FEATURED AUTHORS

Janice Broyles speaks and writes about her journey of feeling cast down and rejected. She shares accounts of Biblical women who struggled with those same feelings & how God proved faithful in the most trying circumstances. Janice has degrees in Education, English, Psychology, English Language and Literature and is currently working on a doctorate, focusing on Educational Leadership.

Shenandoah Chefalo, author and child advocate. Plagued and embarrassed by her name (a humiliation enhanced by a nomadic childhood that made it impossible to build lasting relationships), Shenandoah Chefalo developed a tough skin at an early age. Along the way she learned to deal with disappointment, push through discomfort, overcome adversity, and accurately gauge people, qualities that have helped her to succeed. Shenandoah Chefalo is a graduate of Michigan State University (holding a Bachelor of Arts with a Major in Interdisciplinary Studies in Social Science), a Core Essentials Graduate from Coach U, a Certified Law of Attraction Advanced Practitioner, and a member of the National Speakers Association.

Authors will have books for sale. There will also be a great collection of teacups and saucers available for purchase, compliments of Long's Antiques.
